

This 2009 female snow corn is from reverse Okeetee parents, and displays unusual coloration, which is common in snows from reverse Okeetees. She is currently 34" long and eating frozen/thawed, large hopper or small adult mice.