42" adult female "?Anery?" corn snake. Most of her siblings were classic Aneries and since one of her parents was a Strawberry Anery, I believe this is probably also Strawberry Anery, but I'm defaulting to the lowest potential; Anery. Her $225.00 price includes She is currently in brumation where she began her dormant winter on December 22, 2013. SMR id 1457
