This 2012 Mystery Lavender female corn is now 39" long, eating frozen/thawed adult mice. She is so-called "mystery" by Rich Hume who believes this line of Lavenders to be something more than just Lavender, but breeding trials thus far have not yet identified "what" more they could be? We confess they do have some color peculiarities, and it's been my experience that if some corn doesn't neatly fit into a model, it likely IS something different. Her $285.00 price includes
