

If you have been waiting to see an albino corn snake for sale with lots of green, this 24" 2017 male High-white Reverse Okeetee is about as much green as you're likely to see? Showing this much green at such a tender age surely means it will show much more color in the coming months? He is currently eating frozen/thawed large pinky mice.