

This 39" female Tessera had a Buf parent, but doesn't appear to have received a gene copy of that mutation. The second pic shows her belly pattern, of which I really like the fully color-striped tail. A proven breeder, she will produce many beautiful Tesseras for us this year if she isn't sold.