

Th

The parents of this 2017 male Sunkissed Tessera corn snake have never produced any homozygote Star-gazer (aka: SG) mutants, but only one of them was tested negative for the SG mutation. He is 24" long, eating frozen/thawed fuzzy mice.