

Mal

e Pied-sided Bloodred Tessera corn snake. He has precious little lateral white, but enough to ensure that he possesses the P/S (Pied-sided) gene mutation. That gene barely exhibited, he's stunning in appearance and very calm, and. He is currently about 20" long, eating unaltered frozen/thawed medium to large pinky mice.