

From the SCRATCH AND DENT DEPARTMENT, this 2016 19" female Honey (Sunkissed Caramel) is currently eating unaltered frozen/thawed large pinky mice. She has numerous spinal kinks in her body that she has had since she hatched, but she's a great feeder and has never tried to bite? It's remotely possible that the size and volume of kinking could increase as she matures.