

This 28" male 2017 corn snake is het for Amel and possibly het for Caramel and Scaleless. He is currently eating frozen/thawed large fuzzy mice. While not the most colorful of corns, this snake is about to slough its outer skin, so it should have a little more color in a week or so?