

Show & $ell

{product id=985}

Currently eating frozen/thawed Adult mice, this 44" 2002 female albino Nelson's Milksnake has been a great pet (we never introduced her to a male). She has no defects and is in great physical health. She brumated from October 20, 2014 to February 10, 2015. Milk snakes are renowned for their captive longevity. Her $155.00 price includes