The only relative these two 2016 Amel corns have in common (that I'm aware) is their Scaleless grandsire. They have different parents and both are eating frozen/thawed medium to large pinky mice. They (male & female) are both 66.6% possibly-het for Scaleless and also possibly-het Striped Caramel (therefore, possibly-het Scaleless Striped Butter).

Their $555.00 USD PAIR-price includes
