

Show & Tell

This adult High-white Reverse Okeetee female satisfies the supreme goal of this selectively-bred Amel corn. Only through selective-breeding, it is VERY difficult to achieve this level and quality of white without “clutter” of other colors. The red lace you see is where the white scales meet mostly red skin beneath.

Same snake in different pose.