

SHOW AND TELL:

Oops! Even veteran snake breeders can be fooled from time to time. This female p/s Bloodred thankfully deposited her second 2014 egg clutch outside her water bowl because I failed to record her pre-lay shed and consequently wasn't checking daily for eggs. Read more and see pic of them 10 DAYS after rehydration with semi-damp sphagnum moss.