

Here is a 2018 corn snake from the pairing of an eXtreme Reverse Okeetee with a High-white Reverse Okeetee with heavily green blotch borders. As a neonate, none of the green was evident, but you can see at 10 months of age, the green is starting to show? I'll post an updated image of this snake in six months, to see how much more green is showing.