

The parents of the pinker one on the left are a Specter X Coral Ghost, and parents of the snake on the right are a Specter and a Snow. No additional mutation has been identified in Specter corns (other than Anery-type and possibly a Red-modifying mutation?)

We'll show these snakes-and others-as they mature, so you can all see any ontogenetic potential color changes.