

Show & Tell

This 2016 female Fire Motley (Amel Diffused Motley) is refreshingly orange, compared to the red Fires I usually make. I'm not being facetious. I REALLY like her color. Thanks, Jud McClanahan in Kansas for making this beautiful corn. I also like the missing head scale? Could that missing scale be the result of a gene mutation? We'll see.