Show & $old

This 2014 male Amel Buf Tessera is 19″ long, eating frozen/thawed large pinky mice. Other than Amel–that is recessive to wild-type–he has two mutations that are dominant to wild-type (Buf and Tessera), so no waiting for two generations to see reproductions of either of those or snakes with both mutations. His $365.00 price includes $old