

Show & Tell

Hatched in the first season of Tessereras (2008) after I discovered their inheritance, now 8-years-old, this male remains one of the most colorful of our Tesseract breeders. This year, he was bred to two Extreme Okeetees, so the Tesseract progeny from those should mature to have rich reds and blacks.