

Show & Tell

These 2018 hatchlings are products of the pairing of two snakes owned by Catherine Turley, a Creamsicle Okeetee X Banded Reverse Okeetee. Both parents are exceptional examples of those morphs, the Reverse Okeetee being spectacularly banded. Creamsicles are the interspecies hybrid results of crossing Emory's Ratsnake (aka: Great Plains Ratsnake) with Cornsnake.