Part of a brood including Ultramel Charcoals. Blizzard is the composite product of Amel & Charcoal, but the Ulta & Charcoal counterpart composite is the Ultramel Charcoal (non-Amels in this picture). Most of our adult Blizzards are actually Snow Blizzards so we often get Anery and Snow products along with the Charcoals and Blizzards. See the South Mountain Reptiles FaceBook image from two DAYS ago to see more of the siblingss of this brood.
