

The Snake-of-the-Day headliner of this web site features photographs that we believe will interest our web site visitors. Each daily photograph will be posted at 11:00 am. central (GMT - 5) and replaced in 24 hours. Feel free to make suggestions regarding what snake photographs you would like to see in this daily feature. The animals pictured here are not for sale, unless otherwise noted, but you can find available surplus snakes for sale on the Surplus Page of this web site. We appreciate your patronage and welcome any suggestions you may have.

From pairing a Striped Tessera to a Sunkissed Motley, six or seven of the progeny look like this one. In some light exposures, the heads appear to be baby-blue. Of all of them, this one has the most dramatic Hurricane variation of the Motley pattern.
