

SHOW & $ELL

If not now, there will soon be too many colors of Tesseras to collect them all, but if you've been thinking of specializing in a color group, consider Amel Tesseras. I'm guessing you don't have this one; an Amel Buf Tessera. The inherent value of this gem is that of the three mutations it exhibits (Amel, Buf, and Tessera) two are dominant to wild-type; Buf and Tessera. The $500.00 USD price of this 2014 hatchling female includes . . .
