

Show & Tell

Many corn breeders out there recognize and frequently state that the first generation or Coral Snow corns is pink or coral and beautiful, but the next line generation of them include examples with literally twice (or more) pink and/or coral coloration.