

SHOW & TELL

Adult female Banded Fluorescent Corn Snake. Who would ever have imagined even ten years ago that a variant of a single gene mutation (Amel) could be so beautiful and market-popular with all the different competition multi-gene mutants in the hobby? I'm now trying to envision this color scheme in a Tessera.