

Show & Tell

Here's one of the babies from the pairing of a Cherry Amel Tesseract X eXtreme Reverse Okeetee back in March (featured SOTD 03-26-18). Like their non-Tesseract counterparts, Cherry Amels have very little red when they first hatch, but quickly render more and more of it, beginning only weeks into their lives.

BONUS PIC . . .