

Show & Tell

These 2016 hatchling Salmon Snow Motleys are just a week old and will be feeding and ready for shipping in less than two weeks. Not remarkably colored at this age, they will be strongly coral/pink before they are a year old and will continue to saturate in color for most of the remainder of their lives.