

Show & Tell

I was off by a week when I predicted last month that this Trans-pecos Ratsnake (Bogertophis subocularis) would lay her eggs before the end of August. She began laying on September 5th.