

Have you any idea how difficult it is not to grab my camera every time I open the cage of a Scaleless Extreme Okeetee?

Another reason I love shooting the Scaleless corns is that the only reflection from the camera flashes is on their eyes.