

Show & Tell

We haven't bred these in almost 15 years now, but here are pix of some of our past Banded Amel Motley corn snakes. When Motley, Stripe or Bloodred are in concert with albino (Amel) it's difficult to alter ground color zones away from two shades of orange-toward red on white-but with patience and diligence, it can be attained in several successive selectively bred familial generations. Bonus PIC . . .