

Show & Tell

The snake on the left (pictured on dirt) is the same snake that's in the second picture (larger of those two). These two pics feature the same famous Cotton Candy corn that Graham Criglow produced a couple of years ago, at two different ages. The small one in the second picture is a 2014 Salmon Snow we produced, understandably similar since the Cotton Candy originated from SMR Coral stock. . . .