toDAY's SNAKE of the DAY (Fri. Oct. 12, 2012)

#101212

Tessera

Female

d.o.h. 2010

33" long on October 11, 2012

$450.00 shipped

Comments: Eating unaltered frozen/thawed small adult mice. She should be breedable in 2013. Possibly het for Amel. She has a small rubbing scar just above her rostral scales. This was the result of an injury when she was a hatchling from rubbing against a burr at the periphery of one of the air holes of the deli cup she lived in as a neonate.

This snake is in good health (not under or over-weight, no parasites or diseases that we are aware of, no injuries or defects, and routinely feeding on unaltered frozen/thawed mice).

If we have noticed that the snake listed has any temperament or behavioral issues other than human-friendly, it will be detailed in Comments above.
