Buuuuuuurrrrrppppppppp, large meal just consumed! This 2017 female Snow Tessera corn snake is currently 11" long, eating frozen/thawed small pinky mice, BUT if you don't have 1-DAY-old f/t pinkies, better pass on getting this gem. She's never refused a 1-DAY-old f/t pinky, but she could have trouble with something larger, if her new cage temp zones were not ideal? Her $225.00 USD price includes
